Lochner Expands in Pennsylvania

January 31, 2023

We are excited to announce that Derek Rogers and Brian Hansel have joined Lochner's Pennsylvania team. Derek and Brian's extensive experience in construction inspection brings a new and exciting service offering to our company within the state. Lochner's CEI team has a proven track record of success working with a wide range of owners and partner firms throughout Pennsylvania, and with this expansion, Lochner will see great potential for growth through targeted pursuits, strategic partnerships, and the development of our inspection staff.

At Lochner, Derek and Brian will be able to leverage the engineering knowledge at Lochner to provide valuable construction guidance to our design groups.

"Derek and Brian will play a vital role in driving business development with existing and new clients and in growing our inspection staff size and capabilities across Pennsylvania and beyond. We are confident that their expertise and leadership will greatly benefit our company and our clients." -Ryan Gargan, PE, Northeastern Regional Manager and Vice President
